The qualifications, experience and special responsibilities of the Board members are set out in the Annual Report.

1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	Members of the Board have letters of engagement which sets out the terms of their appointment including their roles and responsibilities. The Company does not have any senior executives.

The Company is not a relevant employer under the Workplace Gender Equality Act.

1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Complies	The performance of directors is annually assessed and reviewed by the Board. To determine whether it is functioning effectively, the Board shall: • review its Corporate Governance Charter annually; and • perform an evaluation of the Board's performance. The Board is responsible for undertaking an annual performance evaluation of itself and its members in light of the Company's Corporate Governance Charter. The Board will review its performance by discussion and by individual communication with the Chairman and by reference to generally accepted board performance standards. Such a review was undertaken during the reporting period.

	and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Does not comply	Gabriel Radzynski as Chairman of the Board is not considered independent. The Company believes that an independent Chairman does not necessarily improve the function of the Board. The Chairman is associated with the Manager and accordingly, the Company believes that while the Chairman has a significant personal interest in the Manager, which in turn is the driver of the business, his investment expertise adds value to the Company to the benefit of all shareholders.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Complies	Due to the relatively uncomplicated nature of the Company's operations and structure, the Board induction process is of an informal nature. New Directors are fully briefed about the nature of the business, current issues, the corporate strategy and the expectations of the Company concerning performance of Directors. Directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out the key terms and conditions and corporate expectations relevant to that appointment. Directors are individually responsible for maintaining relevant and up to date skills and knowledge.

Any periodic reports not subject to audit or review by external auditors, including the monthly investment updates, are subject to rigorous internal review process by the Manager.

The Company is committed to complying with the continuous disclosure obligations contained in the Listing Rules of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and under the Corporations Act and ensuring that all shareholders and the market have an equal opportunity to obtain and review full and timely information about the Company's securities.
